

Liv Hancock

Based in Pennsylvania and West Virginia | (304)-992-2252 | oliviahancockwork@gmail.com

Summary

Flexible film crew member who is willing to do a variety of jobs on a set and learns quickly. Adept at production assistance, specifically Key PA and Talent PA. Specializes in smaller productions and locations.

Highlights

- Has worked with a broad range of talent
- Excellent computer software and Internet skills
- Strong understanding of theatrical lighting
- Reliable employee who will be on set whenever needed
- Clean driving record and able to drive legally in US
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Fast and eager learner

Work Experience

December 2016 – Crick in the Holler – Key PA – Lewisburg, WV

- Columbia University MFA Short Film
- Key/Talent PA
- Worked to ensure Talent was comfortable at all times
- Escorted Talent to and from set
- Assisted 1st AD

September-October 2016 – 8 O'Clock Class – Production Coordinator – Buckhannon, WV

- Short Film
- Production Coordinator
- Worked to ensure Director, Crew, and Talent knew schedules at all times
- Solved any/all issues that arose on and off set
- Worked directly under the director

March 2017 – The Rest I Can Do Without – Writer, Director, Producer – Buckhannon, WV

- Short Film
- Writer, Director, Producer
- Worked in all areas of production to ensure the film came together
- Solved any/all issues that arose on and off set
- Worked directly with all Crew and Talent to ensure everyone had all information needed

References

Ben Gojer – Co-Producer – Crick in the Holler – 817-994-9304 – ben.gojer@gmail.com

Keith Saine – Supervisor – The Rest I Can Do Without – 804-928-4010 – k_saine@wwvc.edu

